

Dates	MIR Schedule	EMIR Schedule
September 22, 2022	Program applications due	Program applications due
September 22-October 1, 2022	Residency Begins: Program Orientation and Active Residency The MIR will complete the orientation process required of all new members and be announced via TVCOG newsletter. Officially, the year of subsidized membership included as a program benefit begins on September 30. However, this start date is somewhat flexible, and can be any date during this time period.	Residency Begins: Program Orientation The EMIR will complete the orientation process required of all new members. Officially, the year of subsidized membership included as a program benefit begins on September 30. However, this start date is somewhat flexible, and can be any date during this time period.
October 1-December 31, 2022	The Project The MIR will work on their proposed project using the resources and space here at the COG during this time period.	Long Term Maker Support: Skill Building The EMIR will attend complimentary classes and workshops, focusing on skill building. In addition, they will shadow the current MIRs and TVCOG instructors.
January 1- April 30, 2023	Community Engagement and Project Presentation The MIR will share both their project and skills with the community. Events are designed in conjunction with TVCOG staff. Completion of this requirement marks the end of the MIR's official duties within the position.	Active Residency Begins: The Project The EMIR officially transitions to the MIR position, and is announced via TVCOG newsletter. They will work on their proposed project using the resources and space here at the COG during this time period.
May 1- August 31, 2023	Long Term Maker Support Upon completion of the above program requirements, the MIR will be awarded a one-time $500 stipend and given a fully subsidized membership(ending September 30, 2023) in the hopes of supporting their future creative endeavors.	Community Engagement and Project Presentation The MIR will share both their project and skills with the community. Events are designed in conjunction with TVCOG staff. Completion of this requirement marks the end of the MIR's official duties within the position. Upon completion of the above program requirements, the MIR will be awarded a one-time $500 stipend and given a fully subsidized membership(ending September 30, 2023) in the hopes of supporting their future creative endeavors.
September 30, 2023	Final Reports The year long complimentary membership ends September 30, 2023. Participants will be asked to complete an end-of-year review of the program for internal feedback purposes.	Final Reports The year long complimentary membership ends September 30, 2023. Participants will be asked to complete an end-of-year review of the program for internal feedback purposes.

